The Henry M. Jackson Foundation for the Advancement of Military Medicine

ZERO TOLERANCE FOR HUMAN TRAFFICKING

The Henry M. Jackson Foundation for the Advancement of Military Medicine, Inc., its subsidiary, HJFMRI, and affiliated company, HJFMRI Ltd./Gte., have a zero-tolerance policy regarding trafficking in persons.

Under this policy, which is derived from FAR 52.222-50, contractors and contractor employees may not:

1. Engage in severe forms of trafficking in persons, generally defined to include any conduct or condition that involves sex trafficking or involuntary servitude.
2. Procure commercial sex acts, defined as any sexual activity on account of which anything of value is given to or received by any person.
3. Use forced labor in the performance of a government contract. Forced labor generally includes circumstances where labor or services are obtained from a person using acts or threats of serious harm, physical restraint, or the abuse of law or the legal process.

Employees have a responsibility to immediately report (in good faith) without fear of retaliation and subject to protection under 10 USC § 2409 from reprisal for whistle blowing on trafficking in persons violations.

PLEASE SPEAK UP.
